March 2006

Dear Parents and Carers

Many thanks to everyone who replied to the survey about changing the Christmas holiday in the next school year.

Some parents/carers actually voted to keep the original holiday pattern but if the primary schools were to change the holiday dates then their vote would have been in favour of the change. We have been advised that many primary schools are indeed now also reviewing their holiday dates for next Christmas.

As it was, the vote was overwhelmingly in favour of the new dates. In fact the vote was approximately 4:1 in favour of the change. Since the staff also voted heavily in favour of the change it would now seem sensible to confirm these new dates. Therefore, the new school calendar has been printed overleaf. The Christmas holiday for the school year 2006/2007 will be:

School Closed - Friday 22 December 2006 (1 .50pm)

School Re-opened - Monday 8 January 2007

Finally, because the new Christmas holiday will be the equivalent of two full weeks and not as originally planned two full weeks, plus one day, we have to make one further adjustment.

In the summer of 2007 school will now close on Thursday 19 July. A full revised schedule of dates for the school year 2006/2007 has been printed overleaf.

Should you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact me in school.

Yours faithfully
